of booking was an integral part of the scheme and customer who wanted confirmed booking had a pay interest and instalments to the bank, failing which the bank was free to lodge cancellations and recover the initial amount of Rs. 20,000/- and interest thereon from M/s. PAL. The bank had advanced a total sum of Rs. 33.50 crores to various parties for booking cars under the scheme.

Based on a complaint received by RBI, a scrutiny of the loans sanctioned by the captioned bank's Aurangabad, Mumbai, Pune and Ahmedabad branches was carried out in May/June, 1996 to look into the allegations made therein. The scrutiny carried out by RBI had revealed certain deficiencies in the sanction and follow up of advances.

The RBI discussed the findings of the inspection report with the Chairman & Managing Director of the bank who indicated that the bank had taken steps to recover these advances by cancellation of the bookings and adjusting deposits by PAL. According to the information furnished by Punjab & Sind Bank, the outstanding under the scheme as on 31.7.1996 was Rs. 2.27 crores and another sum of Rs. 1.15 crores has since been recovered from PAL.

The Chief Vigilance Officer of the bank informed RBI that the bank was in correspondence with CBI on the car loan scheme since June, 1994 and furnished details of the scheme to RBI as was furnished to CBI. The bank was requested to furnish comments on the various irregularities revealed by RBI scrutiny as the matter was already seized of by CBI.

CBI have registered a case on 31.10.1996 in the matter. RBI have informed that no other similar scheme of Punjab & Sind Bank has come to their notice during the last three years.
